Morning Coffee

Join us Tuesday, August 16th at 11:30 AM EST

“ I love Morning Coffees as they are a way to see a brief view into a company – more than just getting a website link. It also gives us a chance to ask questions from those featured vendors. Morning Coffees are also a great way to network and learn from each other. They are a priority for me! I love Melrose, but I also plan to look into Paparazzi by Biz and Tag from this week’s Morning Coffee. Thanks for all you do! You definitely make my job easier!”

Jessica Krauss, Perry County Memorial Hospital Expressions at PCMH Gift Shop, Perryville, MO

“ I try to attend each session of the Morning Coffee. If I miss a session, I watch the video. For me, it gives me the chance to see both old and new companies and what they have to offer. On some of the companies that I used to shop with and no longer do, through their presentation, I see they have updated and end up purchasing with them again. At Market I may not stop in their showroom to check it out because of time limitations. We get emails from the new companies, but a live presentation is so much better. I would encourage every member to participate in the Morning Coffee sessions. There are generally great giveaways and you get to see who else is attending. I saw that another manager I knew was on and after the session she called and talked about some of the products and companies that had been featured. All of the PPP crew does an excellent job of making sure the members not only get discounts on quality products, but have the opportunity to share input.”
