Hydrangeas: A Blooming Trend in Gift Shops

The timeless beauty of hydrangeas has made them a design favorite, and this year they're taking center stage in gift shop offerings. From stationery to ceramics, hydrangea-inspired items evoke elegance, comfort, and nature's charm, making them a perfect choice for hospital gift shops and pharmacies. At the AmericasMart in Atlanta, the hydrangea trend was evident across categories, showcasing its versatility and wide appeal. These handpicked products celebrate the allure of hydrangeas, offering both functionality and a touch of botanical grace.

Supporting Our PPP Community: Why It Matters

As a valued member of the PPP community, your support of our vendors plays a vital role in the strength and future of our network. Every purchase you make with a PPP Vendor is more than a transaction—it's a step toward building a stronger, more connected community.

Here's why your support is so impactful:

When you choose PPP Vendors, you're showing them that their contributions matter. Vendors sometimes step away because they don't realize how appreciated they are. Your engagement—whether it's placing an order, sharing feedback, or expressing gratitude—helps vendors feel valued and encourages them to remain active participants.

Your support also helps sustain key resources like Market Preview Booklets, Morning Coffees, Travel Incentives, and Exclusive Events. These programs are only possible with a strong network of vendors who believe in the PPP vision, and your involvement helps keep that vision alive.

Moving Forward Together

By supporting our vendors, you're contributing to a network built on collaboration and shared success. Let's continue to work together to keep PPP strong, vibrant, and beneficial for everyone involved. Your involvement makes all the difference—thank you for everything you do to support our community!

How You Can Make a Difference

Engage with Vendors: Take a moment to connect with our PPP Vendors and let them know how their products or services have positively impacted your business. A little encouragement can go a long way.

Reconnect with Past Vendors: If there's a vendor you've worked with in the past who isn't currently part of the program, consider reaching out to let them know they're missed and valued.

Choose PPP Vendors First: Whenever possible, prioritize working with PPP Vendors. Each order helps to strengthen the relationships and resources that make our community unique.

PANTONE 17-1230 MOCHA MOUSSE:

A 2025 Trend That Speaks to Warmth and Refinement

Pantone's Color of the Year is more than a hue—it's a reflection of the cultural moment and a guidepost for design trends across industries. For 2025, PANTONE 17-1230 Mocha Mousse takes center stage. This warm, sophisticated brown draws inspiration from the comforting richness of chocolate and coffee, embodying thoughtful indulgence and timeless appeal.

Why Mocha Mousse Matters

In a year defined by the search for balance and connection, Mocha Mousse offers a sense of calm paired with quiet luxury. It is grounded yet aspirational, a perfect blend of earthy tones and polished refinement. This versatility makes it ideal for gift buyers who are curating selections that resonate with diverse customer preferences.

This is not just a trend for the runway or glossy magazines—Mocha Mousse is a color that works in the real world. Whether customers are looking for a pick-me-up or a heartfelt gift, this shade carries a message of comfort and care that feels personal and relatable.

A Fresh Approach to Your Product Lineup

Integrating Mocha Mousse into your offerings doesn't require a complete overhaul. Its adaptability makes it easy to align with your existing aesthetic while staying on-trend.

- Seasonal Appeal: This rich brown works seamlessly year-round, pairing beautifully with cozy fall tones, festive winter accents, fresh spring pastels, and vibrant summer hues.
- Elevated Simplicity: Whether through understated packaging, displays, or product designs, Mocha Mousse creates a sense of cohesion that feels sophisticated without being fussy.

Design Palettes for Endless Possibilities

Pantone has curated five unique palettes centered on Mocha Mousse, each offering a distinct mood and style. These combinations include complementary tones ranging from soft neutrals to bold pops of color, making it easy to adapt this shade to different settings and product categories.

By using these palettes as inspiration, you can create displays and curate products that feel harmonious and visually engaging, ensuring that every part of your store is tied together with intention.

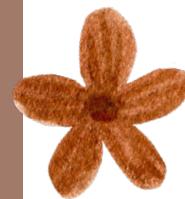

Why This Trend Is Worth Watching

Color trends like Mocha Mousse reflect the evolving tastes of shoppers, blending timelessness with modernity. By weaving this rich brown into your selections, you're not only aligning with current design aesthetics but also tapping into a broader cultural desire for comfort and meaningful experiences.

As 2025 unfolds, PANTONE 17-1230 Mocha Mousse offers a way to stay ahead of trends without losing sight of what matters most: creating spaces and offerings that connect with customers. This versatile shade is more than a design choice—it's an opportunity to tell a story of care, comfort, and style that will resonate all year long.

Thank You for Making Our Event a Success

We'd like to extend our sincere thanks to all the retailers and vendors who joined us for our recent event in Atlanta. Your participation and support are the foundation of its success.

This year, we were excited to welcome even more buyers than last year—a reflection of the event's continued growth. Seeing these connections and collaborations unfold is always rewarding, and we're eager to see where they lead in the months ahead.

In this issue of Network News, we are sharing photos from the event that highlight these special moments. We hope you enjoy reflecting on the experience as much as we do.

We'd also like to express our appreciation to the Market for their invaluable support in making this event possible. Their partnership plays an important role in helping us bring together our retail community.

Thank you again for being part of this event and for your continued commitment. We're looking forward to all that's ahead!
